University Honors
University General Education Course Equivalencies
2004-2006

Students who successfully complete the Core Curriculum of the Honors College automatically satisfy all of the General Education Core Requirements, (Pg. 34 Undergraduate Catalog). In order to earn the designation of University Honors Scholar, students must complete 31 HON prefixed credits, maintain a 3.0 Honors GPA and a 3.3 UNLV GPA. They must also enroll in a minimum of one HONORS course per semester.

ENGLISH (9 Credits) Honors students complete one composition and two literature courses. HON 100 is equivalent to ENG 102 and therefore ENG 101 is not required. HON 110 & HON 115 can be taken in any order. Honors students must complete HON 100 by the end of their first year.

ENG 101→ENG 102→ENG 231 OR 232

HON 100→HON 110→HON 115

CONSTITUTIONS (3 Credits) HON 111 and HON 112 are three credit courses; however they do satisfy both US and Nevada Constitution.

HIST 100→HON 111 OR PSC 101→HON 112

HUMANITIES (6 credits): Honors students must complete HON 190a by the end of their first year. Also, students beginning University Honors, Fall 2004 and after are required to complete a Foreign Language through the 214 level. Credit by Exam may be used for experienced students. Placement into a higher level course may waive lower level requirements. However, six credits are still required.

COM 101→ HON 190A (3 credits) and HON 400 or Foreign Language

MATH (3 Credits) Honors College students are encouraged to take MATH 124 and above. The Honors College offers HON 181(Calculus I) every Fall and HON 182(Calculus II) every Spring. Students are not required to take Calculus for the Honors College.

MATH 181→HON 181, MATH 182→HON 182

SCIENCES (7-8 Credits) Honors College students are required to complete at least one lab science.

Non-Lab Science→HON 280(The Development of Science)
